THIS IS OLE MISS BASKETBALL

Ole Miss basketball has reached further national prominence over the past quarter century, recording 14 seasons with 20 or more wins, 14 postseason berths, three SEC Western Division titles and the 2013 SEC Tournament title. Add a pair of 27-win seasons (school record), six trips to the NCAA Tournament, and a pair of Sweet 16 runs, Ole Miss hoops has reached a new level of expectations.

The stretch of success began in 1997 as Ole Miss advanced to the Big Dance five times in six seasons. During the 2000-01 campaign, the Rebels went 27-8 and advanced to the Sweet Sixteen for the first time in school history following a victory over No. 19 Notre Dame.

After capturing the SEC Tournament title in 2013 with a thrilling 66-63 win over No. 1 seed Florida, the Rebels knocked off No. 5 seed Wisconsin in the NCAA Tournament to advance for the first time since 2001. Ole Miss finished with a 27-9 record, matching the school record for wins in a season with the 2000-01 team.

In 2015, Ole Miss returned to the NCAA Tournament and helped produce the highest scoring game in the Big Dance that year. The game was one of the most exciting, even as one of the tournament's First Four games. Down 20 points, the Rebels rallied for a 94-90 comeback victory over BYU to advance to the second round.

During the 2018-19 campaign the Rebels exceeded expectations to earn an at-large bid to March Madness. With the $96.5 million Sandy and John Black Pavilion at Ole Miss that opened in January 2016, the Rebels saw the biggest increase in attendance among all SEC schools. Five sellouts and an average of nearly 8,000 fans per game set new Pavilion records.

With the hiring of Chris Beard in March 2023, the program brought in one of the most succesfull coaches in the nation of the last decade. Bringing a career win percentage over 70% to Oxford, Beard has helped propell Ole Miss to new heights, and the future of Ole Miss basketball has never been brighter following a pair of 20-win seasons in his first two campaigns.

REBELS IN THE PROS

Ole Miss is no stranger to putting players in the pros with 19 Rebels playing in the NBA. The Rebels boast 15 all-time NBA draft picks including former All-American Gerald Glass, who was selected in the first round by the Minnesota Timberwolves in the 1990 draft. Former Rebels have also reached the NBA coaching ranks like Elston Turner, who played eight years in the NBA and has served as an assistant coach in the league for the last two decades. See page 84 for a complete list of Rebels in the pros.

(Clockwise from top) · Terence Davis was named to the 2020 NBA All-Rookie Team after making an immediate impact for the Toronto Raptors before becoming a key player for the Sacramento Kings; Elston Turner during his NBA career with the Denver Nuggets; Sebastian Saiz and Terence Davis, former Rebel teammates, reunite following a Raptors preseason game in Japan, where Saiz is a pro; Terrico White was the 36th overall pick of the Detroit Pistons in the 2010 NBA Draft and also played for the Phoenix Suns; Ansu Sesay spent time in the NBA with the Golden State Warriors.

FIRST-CLASS FACILITIES

Ole Miss student-athletes have access to first-class facilities in student living, nutrition, training and more. More than $200 million has been raised for improvements to athletic facilities and student-athlete well-being.

(Clockwise from top) - The Ole Miss Residential College student housing; Ole Miss basketball players have the opportunity to play in one of the best arenas in the country, the $96.5 million SJB Pavilion; Rebels also have places to relax such as the players lounge in the Tuohy Center; Student-athletes have access to three meals a day at the Grill at 1810; One of the many sports medicine options available for student-athletes.

THE SANDY AND JOHN BLACK PAVILION AT OLE MISS

The centerpiece of the Forward Together campaign is the state-of-the-art $96.5-million Sandy and John Black Pavilion at Ole Miss. On July 31, 2014, ground was broken on the 225,000-square feet arena that officially opened its doors on January 7, 2016 with the Rebel men's basketball team's victory over Alabama.

Designed by AECOM and built by BL Harbert, The Pavilion boasts a capacity of 9,500 fans and includes a number of first-class amenities, including courtside and baseline seating for students, three premium club areas for fans and more than 1,700 premium seats all within an intimate seating bowl. The men's and women's locker rooms measure almost 1,500 square feet, while the facility also houses two visiting team locker rooms, officials' locker rooms, a volleyball locker room and green room space.

Ole Miss worked with Daktronics to design, manufacture and install what was the largest center-hung video display board in college sports at the time with nearly 2,400 square feet of LED. The center-hung configuration consists of 13 video displays for a total of more than 3.6 million LEDs. It includes four main video displays, two undermount video displays, four corner displays and three 360-degree rings.

On January 28, 2017, the hardwood that the Rebels play on was officially named Craddock Court. Due to the generosity of Ben and David Craddock, the floor was named in honor of the entire Craddock family.

The Pavilion also includes a five-story parking garage with 800 spaces that services the entire campus community.

The placement of The Pavilion allows Ole Miss to further enhance its athletics complex - better connecting athletics to the heart of the best campus in higher education. This centralized location creates an impressive "front door" for Rebel Athletics and a destination point not only on a gameday but every day of the week.

TUOHY BASKETBALL CENTER

Ole Miss Basketball's chances of becoming a prominent program in the national hoops landscape took a big jump when Ole Miss opened the $13 million, 51,000-square-foot facility for men's and women's basketball in January 2010.

The Tuohy Basketball Center includes four distinct spaces - public, staff (coaches), team and individual practice courts for both men's and women's teams.

Spaces for the public include an attractive main rotunda/lobby to receive visitors and a multimedia/entertainment meeting room that can be used for Media Days as well as for video presentations and team functions.

Coaches' offices, a conference room, a copy center, and staff locker and dressing facilities complete the suites. The head coaches' offices provide direct access to and view of their respective practice courts.

HEAD COACH CHRIS BEARD

Chris Beard was named the 23rd head men's basketball coach at Ole Miss by Vice Chancellor for Intercollegiate Athletics Keith Carter on March 13, 2023. A four-time conference coach of the year and two-time national coach of the year, Chris Beard brought his long run of success to Oxford and the SEC.

Beard has led four different programs to the NCAA Tournament since 2016, including an appearance in the 2019 National Championship game and Elite Eight run the year before at Texas Tech. As an NCAA head coach, he owns a 281-122 record for one of the top winning percentages among active coaches in the nation at 69.7 percent. Beard also owns a career mark of 13-6 at the NCAA Tournament, highlighted by a perfect 6-0 record in the opening round. As a collegiate head coach, he owns an overall record of 325-139 across 15 seasons.

The 2024-25 season was a historic one for Ole Miss under Beard in his second season, guiding the team to 24 victories, tied for the third-most in a single season at Ole Miss. He led the Rebels to the 2025 NCAA Tournament where he picked up wins over North Carolina and Iowa State in the first two rounds to clinch just the second Sweet 16 appearance in school history. For his efforts, Beard was named the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year by CollegeInsider.com.

Under Beard's guidance, the 2024-25 team broke the school record for made three pointers in a single season (300), assist-to-turnover ratio in a single season (1.57), and fewest turnovers per game (9.0). They tied for the third-most scored points in a single season in program history with 2,779, collected the second-most steals in a single season at Ole Miss with 315, and tied for the second-most made free throws in a season at Ole Miss with 561.

He guided the Rebels to one of the best starts in program history in his initial season in 2023-24, beginning with a 13-0 record in non-conference play, tying the Ole Miss record for longest win-streak. Beard led the team to a 20-win season, picking up victories over five eventual postseason teams.

From 2021-22, Beard was the head coach at his alma mater, the University of Texas, where he compiled a record of 29-13 over two years, including a 22-12 record and a second-round finish in the 2022 NCAA Tournament in his first season. That year, all five of his starters earned all-conference honors, highlighted by their defensive prowess as Texas led the Big 12 and ranked No. 10 nationally in scoring defense (60.6 points allowed per game) and No. 22 in the country in turnover margin (+3.4).

Prior to his tenure at Texas, Beard spent five seasons at Texas Tech, where he took a program with losing seasons in five of six years before his arrival and turned them into a national powerhouse. Compiling a record of 112-55 (.671) in five seasons, he took the program to new heights, with an Elite Eight appearance in just his second season before guiding the Red Raiders to the national title game in his third year. With no postseason in his fourth year due to COVID-19, he closed out his career at Texas Tech with 18 wins and an appearance in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Before his time at the helm in the Big 12, Beard was the head coach for one season at Little Rock, where he went 30-5, won the Sun Belt Conference title, and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. He previously spent two years as the head coach at Angelo State from 2013-2015, and one season as the head coach of McMurry.

Beard has coached three NBA draft picks since 2018, including first round pick Zhaire Smith by the Phoenix Suns at No. 16 in 2018, and lottery pick Jarrett Culver at No. 6 by the Suns in 2019.

On the recruiting trail, Beard has ranked among the very best in the country, earning top-10 class rankings in 2022, 2020, and 2018. His most recent class of 2022 at Texas was ranked No. 6 in the nation by 247Sports and No. 8 by Rivals, with his final class at Texas Tech in 2020 earning similar praise at No. 7 by Rivals and No. 11 by 247Sports. Prior to his national runner-up season at Texas Tech in 2018-19, his recruiting class was ranked No. 8 by Rivals.

He spent 10 seasons on staff at Texas Tech after he was hired as an assistant coach in 2001 under hall-of-fame coach Bob Knight, and spent three years as associate head coach from 2008 to 2011. Beard was the head coach at Seminole State college in 2000-01, going 25-6. He spent the previous season as the head coach of Fort Scott Community College, and was on staff as an assistant prior at North Texas for two seasons (1997-99) and Abilene Christian for one (1996-97).

Beard graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in kinesiology from Texas in 1995, where he also worked as a student assistant under head coach Tom Penders. He went on to receive his master's degree in education from Abilene Christian University in 1998 after spending one year before that as a graduate assistant at Incarnate Word.

Beard has three daughters, Avery, Ella, and Margo.

Assistant Coach Wes Flanigan joined the Ole Miss staff under Chris Beard in April of 2023, coming to Oxford after a five-year stint as an assistant coach at Auburn under Bruce Pearl.

He has helped guide Ole Miss to back-to-back 20-win seasons in Oxford, including a Sweet 16 appearance in 2025 after accumulating 24 wins. In his inaugural season with the Rebels, he was a member of the staff that picked up a 20-win season in year one, highlighted by a record start at 13-0 in non-conference play.

As the forwards coach at Auburn, Flanigan helped develop NBA draft selections in Chuma Okeke, JT Thor, Jabari Smith, and Walker Kessler.

He also was key in guiding his son, Allen, to become the most improved scorer in the SEC in 2021-22 after raising his output by 11.1 from 3.2 points per game as a freshman to 14.3 points per tilt as a sophomore. Allen was one of three players in the conference to average 14.0 points, 5.0 rebounds and 2.5 assists per game, joining Tre Mann (Florida) and Trendon Watford (LSU).

In 2019-20, despite having the postseason canceled, Auburn went 25-6 and finished second in the SEC. Auburn became one of four major programs to record three consecutive 25-win seasons, joining Duke, Kansas and Kentucky.

After losing five of their top eight scorers from the Final Four team, Auburn was led by Samir Doughty, who became the first First Team All-SEC selection since 1999, and Isaac Okoro, who became just the sixth player in SEC history to be named to an all-conference team, all-defensive team and all-freshman team in the same season.

Flanigan and the staff signed a consensus top-10 recruiting class in 2020, highlighted by the highest-rated recruit in program history in five-star Sharife Cooper, the third McDonald's All-American to enroll at Auburn.

In Flanigan's first year with the Tigers, Auburn went to new heights as a program after reaching the program's first Final Four. The Tigers defeated Kansas, Kentucky and North Carolina on the historic run, becoming the first team ever to defeat the three winningest programs in NCAA history in consecutive games at the NCAA Tournament. Auburn also won its second Southeastern Conference Tournament title in program history after winning four games in four days to join the 1985 squad as teams to hoist the prestigious trophy. Auburn also notched a top-10 recruiting class in November, highlighted by five four-star players.

Prior to his time at Auburn, Flanigan was the head coach at the University of Arkansas Little Rock for two seasons, taking the job after being elevated from assistant when Chris Beard left for Texas Tech.

While with the Trojans for seven seasons from 2004-08 and 2015-18, Flanigan helped Little Rock achieve new single-season program records for wins, Sun Belt Conference victories and road wins. He helped the Trojans win their first-ever outright Sun Belt title during the 2015-16 campaign and knocked off No. 5 seed Purdue in the NCAA Tournament on Chris Beard's staff.

Tech advanced to the program's first Final Four after earning wins over Northern Kentucky, Buffalo, Michigan and Gonzaga before advancing to the national championship game with a 61-51 win over Michigan State in the semifinal in Minneapolis, Minn. Before the tournament run, the Red Raiders won the program's first regular-season Big 12 title by going 14-4 in conference play.

Burg also served as an assistant coach on Beard's Little Rock staff in 2015-16. The Trojans began their Sun Belt championship season with a program-best 10-0 record, completed a 30-5 campaign, and overcame a 14-point deficit in the final five minutes during its NCAA Tournament First Round contest en route to an 85-83 double-overtime victory against No. 12-ranked and fifth-seeded Purdue.

The Trojans' 15-game improvement in the win column tied for the NCAA's top spot and Little Rock had three players pick up All-Sun Belt honors during the same season for the first time in program history, led by Josh Hagins on the All-Sun Belt First Team and the NABC's All-District 24 First Team. Burg was named one of the nation's Top 5 Mid-Major Recruiters by CBSsports.com.

Before Little Rock, Burg spent two seasons at North Carolina Central as an assistant coach. The Eagles turned in an impressive 53-14 record, won 31 of their 32 Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) games and secured berths to the 2014 NCAA Tournament and 2015 NIT. NCCU's 28 victories in 2013-14 were a single-season MEAC record, and its .824 winning percentage was the highest by a MEAC school since the 1987-88 season.

Overall, Burg assisted in the recruitment of, and coached, seven All-MEAC selections during his tenure. Jeremy Ingram came away with 2014 All-MEAC First-Team honors, the 2014 MEAC Player of the Year and the 2014 MEAC Tournament Most Outstanding Performer. Burg was ranked the MEAC's top assistant coach by NextUpRecruits.com in 2014-15.

Burg's first opportunity as an assistant coach at the Division I level came at Campbell University where he organized the program's recruiting efforts and assisted in all phases of the program. The Camels won the 2010 Atlantic Sun Conference regular season title and set program records for regular season (19) and conference (14) wins. Campbell ranked second in the country in steals per game and eighth in turnover margin.

Burg served as lead recruiter on All-Big South performer Eric Griffin, who spent time with the Detroit Pistons during the 2015-16 NBA season and was Campbell's first-ever NBA player. Griffin also enjoyed stints with the Los Angeles Lakers, Miami Heat, Dallas Mavericks and Los Angeles Clippers summer league teams. Darren White became the first player to represent the Camels in the NBA Development League, and Trey Freeman garnered 2012 Big South Freshman of the Year accolades. In total, Burg has had 37 players go on to play professional basketball.

Burg joined the Campbell program after two seasons as the Director of Basketball Operations under Kermit Davis at Middle Tennessee State. He began his coaching career at Lake Erie College as a graduate assistant from 2003-05, followed by one-year assistant coaching stops at Garden City Community College (2005-06) and Western Texas College (2006-07).

A native of Houston, Texas, Burg earned his bachelor's degree from Mount Mercy in 2003 and a master's degree from Lake Erie in 2005. He is married to the former Resea Musgrove and has a stepson, Dane.

John REILLY

Strength and Conditioning Coach • 3rd Season

BYU (2011)

John Reilly was hired as the Ole Miss strength and conditioning coach in April of 2023. He has worked with head coach Chris Beard at three schools across nine seasons, after working with Beard at Texas and Texas Tech, and brings well over a decade of collegiate coaching experience to the Rebels.

As a head basketball strength coach at four different universities, Reilly has won conference championships and made it to the NCAA tournament at each stop. He has assisted in the development of two NCAA All-Americans, two NBA first round draft picks, and eight total NBA players.

During his two seasons at Texas from 2021-23, he helped the Longhorns win 51 total games, including four victories at the NCAA Tournament. Most recently, he helped Texas secure the 2023 Big 12 Tournament title and a No. 2 seed at the NCAA Tournament. The Longhorns went on to reach the Elite Eight after victories over Colgate, Penn State, and Xavier.

In his first year in Austin, Texas earned an 81-73 win over Virginia Tech in the NCAA Tournament Round of 64, marking the school's first NCAA tournament win since 2014. The Longhorns led the Big 12 and finished No. 10 in scoring defense (60.6 ppg), ranked second in the league and No. 22 nationally in turnover margin (+3.4) and second in the league in turnovers per game (11.5), showcasing a culture of defense and ball security.

During Reilly's five years (2016-21) with Beard at Texas Tech, the Red Raiders posted five straight winning seasons and an overall record of 112-55, including an impressive 9-3 mark at the NCAA Tournament. Texas Tech advanced to the Elite Eight for the first time in program history in 2018 and returned the following season with a trip to the 2019 National Championship Game. After the 2020 tournament was canceled due to COVID-19, the Red Raiders advanced to the 2021 NCAA Tournament Second Round.

Texas Tech registered a 74-13 mark in home games at the United Supermarkets Arena in this five-year stretch, including a 33-12 record in Big 12 contests. Texas Tech produced a total of two all-Americans, 13 All-Big 12 selections, and 21 Academic All-Big 12 honorees during Reilly's five years on staff.

Three Texas Tech players were selected in the NBA Draft under Reilly's watch. Zhaire Smith became the second NBA Draft first-round pick in program history, when he was selected No. 16 overall by the Phoenix Suns. Jarrett Culver was the No. 6 overall pick in the 2019 Draft by the Minnesota Timberwolves, and Jahmi'us Ramsey was selected No. 43 overall in the 2020 Draft by the Sacramento Kings.

Before his time in Lubbock, Reilly worked on the strength and conditioning staff for four years (2012-16) at North Carolina Central University in Durham, N.C. In his first season at North Carolina Central, he supervised the entire Olympic sports program. Reilly then served as the department's head of strength and conditioning for three years (2013-16). He helped the NCCU men's basketball team win the program's first Division I regular-season conference title and conference tournament title while advancing to the school's first NCAA Tournament during the 2013-14 season. NCCU also earned back-to-back MEAC Football championships and claimed FCS playoff berths in 2014 and 2015.

OLE MISS BASKETBALL HISTORICAL TIMELINE

January 28, 1909

Ole Miss plays its first organized basketball game, but the celebration is cut short by a 12-11 loss to the Memphis Physicians. Legend has it that Ole Miss led 7-6 at the half, but lost out in the second half when "with the wind at their backs, the Physicians overcame our half-time lead for a narrow victory." The game was reportedly played outdoors on a court located behind the Lyceum on the Oxford campus.

February 17, 1909

Ole Miss decides to save the best for last as the team records its first ever victory the last game of the season with a 28-11 win over Mississippi College. Ole Miss finishes the 1909 season 1-4.

One year after the organization's formation, Ole Miss joins the Southern Conference.

January 27, 1925

With a 35-17 victory over Centenary, Ole Miss collects its 100th victory in the program's history.

May 1, 1926

A 38-23 loss to North Carolina in the championship game of the Southern Conference Tournament ends a win streak for Ole Miss, as the team rolled out a 12-game overall and nine-game away/neutral win streak. The 12-game streak, which started Jan. 16, 1926, with a road victory over rival LSU, remained the longest in school history until the 2007-08 squad put together 13 straight wins.

February 28, 1928

After rattling off victories over N.C. State, LSU and Kentucky, a 31-30 win over Auburn made Ole Miss Southern Conference Tournament Champions. (see story inset) Coach Homer Hazel's Mississippians finished the 1928 season 10-9.

December 8-9, 1932

At the annual Southern Conference meeting in Knoxville, Tenn., Ole Miss along with the other 12 schools west and south of the Appalachian Mountains reorganized to form the Southeastern Conference. Ten of those charter members (Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt) still remain as members of the SEC.

1928 Southern Conference Tournament Champions

TEAM OF DESTINY WINS IT - GREAT RALLY TURNS TIDE

By Morgan Blake
(originally published in the 1928 Ole Miss Yearbook)

Ole Miss, the Team of Destiny, is champion of the South in basketball. A fighting clan that refused to surrender when the clouds were blackest today is king of the great indoor game.

It was an amazing and courageous comeback that won the title for Ole Miss after Auburn had taken a twelve-point lead in the second half and seemed as sure of winning as anything in this uncertain world can be.

The score at one stage of the second half was, Auburn 25, Ole Miss 13. The thousand or more Auburn students and alumni in the auditorium were in the seventh heaven of delight. They smelled the bacon frying and they knew the feast was for them. The Tigers had been outplaying their enemies all the way through and were marching on to glory and fame. Some of the spectators were yawning a bit. Many were a bit sorry for Ole Miss and hoped they would make just a few more points so as not to be humiliated.

And then - Captain Robert M. Lee, the long, lanky leader of the Mississippians, rallied his clan for a final desperate drive. It was the last charge of the old guard. Up the slope they came, snarling, growling, fighting their way through all obstacles. The Tigers, surprised by the sudden fury of a team that had been so docile, wavered before the charge. Doggedly they fought back, but the storm engulfed them. The Team of Destiny was on its way. Two points, two points, two points! With monotonous regularity Ole Miss was sinking them. Now they are just two points behind. Now they are even. Now they are two points ahead. And it's a minute and three-quarters to play. Captain Lee fouls, and Auburn shoots a free throw. Now it's Ole Miss, 31; Auburn, 30.

The seconds were about gone. Down the floor comes Auburn with the last spring left in the Tiger. A desperate try for a goal that goes wild. The pistol cracks. The game is over. The Team of Destiny had won by one little point, which, however, was as big as Stone Mountain so far as the effectiveness of it was concerned.

The grim gods of fate who had given Auburn one-point victories over Clemson and Georgia Tech in the early games of the tournament deserted the Tigers in the big crisis, and smiled upon the opposition. The grim gods often do things like that.

January 10, 1936

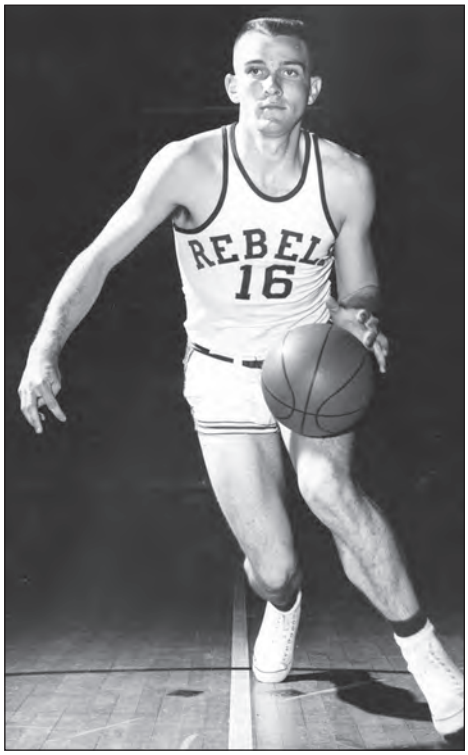
In the first game of the 1936 season, Ole Miss reached is 200th win in the program's history with a 41-40 squeaker over Memphis Coca-Cola. Forward George Clay led the attack for Ole Miss with 13 points.

May 5, 1938

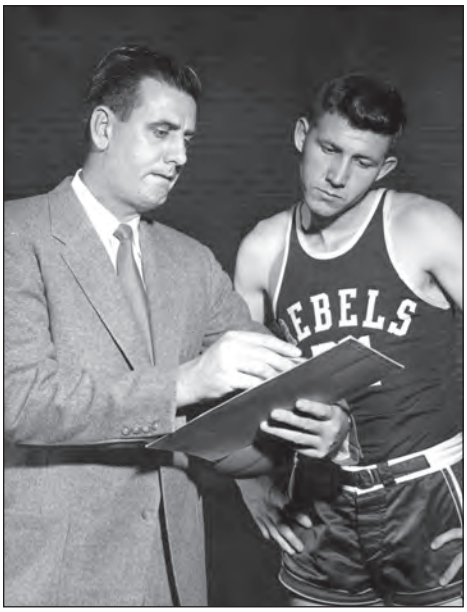
A 58-47 loss to Georgia Tech in the SEC Tournament Championship Game ends a nine-game overall SEC win streak by the Rebels that started Feb. 5, 1938, with a 45-44 win over in-state rival Mississippi State.

1937-38

Bonnie Graham leads the SEC in scoring with his 17.4 average, the first player to ever average more than 17 a game in the SEC. In the conference tournament, he scores 71 points and a single-game high of 27. Graham also becomes Ole Miss' first basketball All-America selection.



A star left-handed pitcher, Joe Gibbon was on a baseball scholarship at Ole Miss and had to ask hoops coach Country Graham for permission to report for basketball. Lucky for the Rebels, Coach Graham agreed, and Gibbon put together a remarkable season in 1957 when he finished second in the nation in scoring with 30.1 points per game. The talented athlete went on to enjoy a 13-year Major League Baseball career.



B.L. "Country" Graham, who was the first All-American basketball player in school history, also stands as the second all-time winningest coach in program annals with 144 wins from 1950-62. In the picture above, he runs through plays with pupil and future Ole Miss head coach Cob Jarvis.

He played just one season before turning pro, but in 1970-71 Johnny Neumann put up numbers that may never again be reached by a Rebel, or any other Southeastern Conference player. Neumann led the nation with a 40.1 scoring average, by far a school record and behind only Pete Maravich's three legendary seasons in the league record books. Neumann still owns five of the top six single-game scoring marks in school history. Despite also being an Academic All-American, he left school after his sophomore season to join the Memphis Tams of the ABA, and enjoyed a seven-year career in the ABA and NBA.

Ole Miss achieves its 300th win in the last regular-season game of the year with a 76-24 stomping of Arkansas State. Three Rebels hit double-digit scoring that night with M.C. McMullen collecting 20, Doug Krell posting 13 and Bob McCain with 12.

December 10, 1953

A new record is set for the Rebels as the team reaches the most points scored by Ole Miss in a single game with a 118-82 win over Union. Cob Jarvis leads the way with 37 points on 13 field goals and 11 free throws. Denver Brackeen follows close behind with 31 points.

January 17, 1955

With former Rebel B.L. "Country" Graham as head coach, Ole Miss records its 400th win in program history by beating Vanderbilt 77-63.

1954-55

While being chosen as UPI's SEC Player of the Year and AP's SEC Most Valuable Player, center Denver Brackeen becomes the program's second player selected to All-America honors. His 27.2 scoring average leads the league.

1956-57

After becoming only the second player in SEC history to average more than 30 points, forward Joe Gibbon is named to multiple All-America teams.

February 22, 1958

Coach Graham once again makes Ole Miss history as he collects his 100th win as head coach, making him the first Ole Miss coach to reach the century mark. The Rebels helped accomplish this with an 83-68 victory over Tulane.

1963-64

A star on the court and on the baseball diamond, guard Don Kessinger is named an All-American after setting 18 Ole Miss basketball records.

January 30, 1965

After edging out Tulane with a 62-60 win in Oxford, Ole Miss reaches the 500-win mark for the program's history. Two Rebels had double-doubles with Fred Stanley collecting 21 points and 12 rebounds and Jim Robbins posting 13 points and 10 rebounds. Jack Steinhart and James Bobe also greatly contributed with 17 rebounds and 11 points, respectively.

February 21, 1966

Ole Miss basketball gets a new home in the Rebel Coliseum, later to be named after then-Athletics Director C.M. "Tad" Smith. However, Kentucky spoils the inaugural game by defeating the Rebels 108-65.

1970-71

Forward Johnny Neumann earns All-America honors in his first and only season as a Rebel, setting numerous school records along the way.

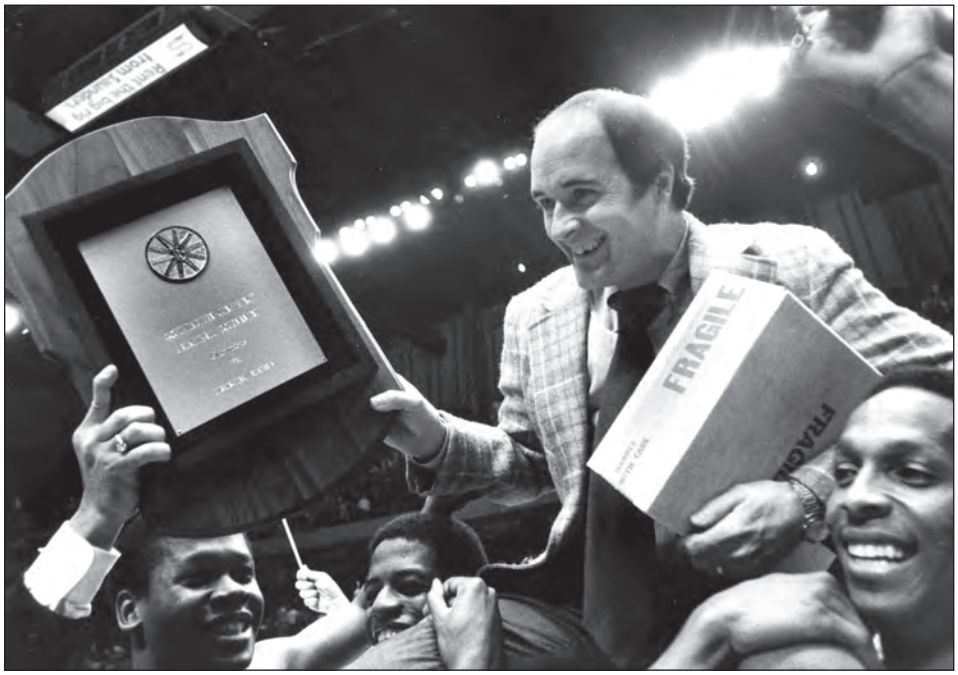
December 7, 1974

The program collects its 600th victory by defeating Texas in Oxford 82-74. Four Rebels scored in double digits with Bob Mahoney pacing the team with 21 points. Herb Wright followed with 18 points while Dave Shepard had 15 and Walter Actwood 13.

1978-79

After leading the SEC in scoring with 26.3 points per game, forward John Stroud receives All-America honorable mention plaudits.

Known among Rebel circles as "Mr. Clutch," Carlos Clark finished his impressive Ole Miss career having buried four game-winning shots at the buzzer, including a 15-footer on March 6, 1980, that gave Ole Miss its first postseason win, 76-74, over Grambling in the NIT Clark's freshman season. He went on to be drafted by the Boston Celtics, and helped them to the 1984 NBA Championship.



Bob Weltlich is carried off the court by his Rebel players after the 1981 SEC Tournament Championship victory over Dominique Wilkins and the Georgia Bulldogs.

March 6, 1980

Ole Miss earns its first postseason tournament victory after getting by Grambling 76-74 at Tad Smith Coliseum. The road to the NIT championship had to end, though, when Minnesota proved to be too much and defeated the Rebels 58-56.

1979-80

Earning the highest career point total in Ole Miss history and still the third-most in league annals with 2,328 points, John Stroud is selected to All-America honors for the second straight season.

March 7, 1981

The underdog Rebels, who finished sixth in the league in the regular season, defeated Tennessee and Vanderbilt before earning the title with a 66-62 upset of Georgia in the finals of the 1981 SEC Tournament, propelling Ole Miss to its NCAA Tournament debut.

March 13, 1981

The Rebels play in their first NCAA Tournament and barely miss a second-round showing with a narrow 69-66 defeat to perennial power Kansas in Wichita.

December 18, 1982

Ole Miss posts the 700th win in program history with a 67-60 victory over Central Arkansas in Oxford. The Rebels sealed the victory behind Carlos Clark and Roger Steig's 16 points apiece.

1981-82

Forward Carlos Clark is named AP All-America honorable mention following a junior year in which he scored 21.1 points per game and helped Ole Miss to an 18-12 record and NIT appearance. Between his junior and senior seasons, Clark had a streak of 37 straight games in which he posted double-figure point totals.

Becoming the first player in Ole Miss history to record 500 points, 100 rebounds and 100 assists, guard Rod Barnes is named to an honorable mention All-American and finished third in the coaches' balloting for SEC Player of the Year.

March 4, 1989

Ole Miss defeats LSU 113-112 in overtime in perhaps the greatest one-on-one duel in Southeastern Conference history. LSU's Chris Jackson tallied 55 points, while the Rebels' Gerald Glass hit for 53. The 108 combined points is the most by two players in an SEC game. More importantly, Glass led Ole Miss to victory in dramatic fashion. With seven minutes left in overtime, Glass had 47 points, but had missed seven straight shots while going scoreless for the final four minutes of regulation and the first three minutes of overtime. LSU led 110-107, and Glass had been pestered by four different Tiger defenders to make him exhausted. But with a final surge, Glass tipped in a rebound to narrow the margin to one point, hit a 3-pointer to tie the score and drained the free throw with nine seconds left that gave Ole Miss the victory in the regular-season finale.

1988-89

In his first season as a Rebel, forward Gerald Glass is named an honorable mention All-American.

"World Class" Gerald Glass was a household name and a fan favorite during his two standout seasons with Ole Miss. He was thought by many to be the top college player in the nation his senior season, when he earned his second straight All-America honorable mention accolade. Glass was taken in the first round of the 1990 NBA Draft and played for Minnesota, Detroit, New Jersey and Charlotte during his pro career.

Ansu Sesay cuts down the nets following the Rebels' 74-68 win over LSU that propelled them to the 1997 SEC Western Division title. It was the first of four SEC West titles for Ole Miss. Sesay was part of back-to-back titles, celebrating the 1998 crown in his All-American senior season.

March 9, 1990

Ole Miss marks its 800th program victory with a 65-62 win over Vanderbilt during the SEC Tournament. Gerald Glass and Tim Jumper help the Rebels edge by the Commodores with their 15-point performances. Patrick Eddie played his part by recording a double-double with 14 points and 10 rebounds.

1989-90

After finishing his two-year career at Ole Miss with 1,564 points, Gerald Glass receives his second All-America honorable mention accolade.

June 27, 1990

Gerald Glass becomes the first Ole Miss player to be selected in the first round of the NBA Draft. He went 20th overall to the Minnesota Timberwolves.

January 11, 1997

Ole Miss upends No. 3-ranked and defending national champion Kentucky 73-69. The upset snapped the Wildcats' 14-game win streak and propelled the Rebels to their first top-25 ranking in school history, jumping to No. 20 in the AP poll. That season began an unprecedented Rebel run of six straight postseason appearances and back-to-back SEC Western Division championships.

February 26, 1997

Coach Rob Evans leads the Rebels to win their first SEC Western Division title after defeating LSU 74-68 in the last home game of the regular season.

February 11, 1998

Ole Miss hits 900 victories with an 87-76 win over Vanderbilt. All-Americans Keith Carter and Ansu Sesay push the Rebels to the victory. Carter collected 17 points, three assists and three rebounds, while Sesay posted 14 points, including a 2-for-2 night from behind the arc, and 12 rebounds.

February 28, 1998

The program gets its second straight SEC Western Division title after recording a 74-67 win versus Auburn in the regular-season finale. Ole Miss went on to receive a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament, but a little-known team from Valparaiso spoils the Rebels' postseason plans.

December 29, 1998

Ole Miss claims its largest margin of victory in a single game with a 111-50 win over Prairie View. The game also marked the third time that season that Ole Miss broke triple digits in scoring.

1997-98

One of two Rebels to ever record 1,000 points, 600 rebounds and 200 assists, forward Ansu Sesay is named a consensus All-American, as well as receiving SEC Player of the Year honors. "We Say Sesay" becomes a familiar chant among Rebel fans, and Sesay does his part by scoring in double figures for the final 53 games of his career.

March 12, 1999

After losing a heartbreaker at the buzzer to Valparaiso just the season before in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament, the Rebels record their first NCAA Tournament win by defeating Villanova 72-70. Ole Miss did not make it to the Sweet 16 because Michigan State defeated the Red and Blue 74-66 in the second round.

January 13, 1999

Homecourt advantage was an understatement for the Rebels in the late 1990s. From Jan. 11, 1997 to this date Ole Miss went on a 29-home game winning streak. However, all good things must come to an end, and Auburn ended the Rebels' streak with a 74-59 win.

1998-99

Finishing atop the Ole Miss three-pointers chart with 249 for his career, guard Keith Carter is named an honorable mention All-American.

March 3, 2001

After crushing Alabama 105-71, Ole Miss earns its third SEC Western Division title. Jason Holmes tallies a game-high 26 points on the night after going 7-of-13 shooting, including 5-of-9 from three-point range. Jason Flanigan contributes 17 points with 10 of those coming from the free throw line.

March 18, 2001

It took the smallest Rebel of all time to hit the biggest shot in Ole Miss hoops history. Coming off only their second NCAA Tournament win ever, the Rebels found themselves trailing Notre Dame by one point with a minute remaining in the second round of the 2001 Big Dance. With the shot clock running down and 48 seconds left, 5-foot-5 Jason Harrison drilled a deep three from the top of the arc to hand Ole Miss a two-point advantage that it would not relinquish en route to a 59-56 victory. One of the more memorable moments of the 2001 tourney, Harrison's trey propelled Ole Miss to the program's first Sweet 16 appearance and highlighted the finest season in school history, as the Rebels finished No. 9 in the nation with a 27-8 mark and a third SEC Western Division title in five years.

Jason Harrison drained several big shots during his career, but none more significant than the deep trey that found the bottom of the net in the waning moments of the 2001 NCAA Tournament second-round game vs. Notre Dame. The bucket propelled Ole Miss to a 59-56 win and its first trip to the Sweet Sixteen.

OLE MISS BASKETBALL ALL-CENTURY TEAM

Highlighting the season-long celebration of the "First 100 Years of Ole Miss Basketball" in 2008-09, Ole Miss athletics officials proudly announced on Feb. 12, 2009, the C Spire All-Century Team. The honorees were publically recognized during halftime of the Feb. 21 home game vs. Georgia.

The All-Century Team was selected following a vote of fans on OleMissSports.com and a committee of officials from the athletics department and the M-Club Alumni Chapter. The fans' top 10 choices automatically qualified, and the remaining spots were chosen by the committee. The ballot included any Rebel that earned All-SEC honors or scored 1,000 or more points in his career, excluding current players, for a total of 41 nominees. Fans also had the opportunity to email write-in votes.

The All-Century Team was not divided by position or first, second or third team, as all 19 players hold the same rank on the squad.

The team includes all 13 Rebels that earned All-America honors in their career and the top nine scorers in school history at the time. The list also contains three Associated Press SEC Players of the Years (Denver Brackeen, 1955; Johnny Neumann, 1971; Ansu Sesay, 1998). While honored for their performances as players, the All-Century Team coincidentally includes three of the four winningest coaches in school history (B.L. "Country" Graham, 145 wins; Rod Barnes, 141; Cob Jarvis, 87).
